(b) if so, Government's observations thereon;

(c) whether UNCTAD report has suggested any recommendations for FDI friendly and easier policy; and

(d) if so, the details thereof and the response thereto?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY (SHRI SATYABRATA MOOKHERJEE): (a) to (d) The World Investment Report of UNCTAD is an exercise for assessing the interaction between national and international FDI policies and the implications thereof on development. WIR 2003 has advocated a development-oriented FDI policy for developing countries in the context of International Investment Agreements (IIAs).

In so far as FDI flows into India is concerned, the WIR has shown that the inflows have registered an increase over the last 3 years. The FDI inflows into India during the last 3 years as reported by WIR 2003 are:

2000	US$	2.32 billion
2001	US$	3.40 billion
2002	US$	3.44 billion

The FDI policy of the Government of India is liberal and transparent with a great degree of automaticity built in. The FDI policy is reviewed on an on-going basis with a view to introducing further liberalization and also carry policy corrections required, if any.
